

the save
date

19-21 December 2016

www.arch.uoa.gr

www.caa-gr.org

2nd CAA–GR Conference

National and Kapodistrian University of Athens

Field prospection and recording methods for excavation and laboratory work - Data modeling, management and integration - Linked data and the semantic web - Data analysis and visualization - 3D modeling, virtual reality and simulations - Geomatics, aerial photography and remote sensing - GIS applications in a historical context - Digital data long-term preservation and re-use - Users and interfaces: education, museums and multimedia - Theoretical issues on computer applications in Archaeology and the Humanities - Digital Humanities and Social Media - Digital Cities, cultural heritage management and protection - Crowdsourcing for Humanities Research and more ...